ROADWAY RETIREES NEWSLETTER

OCTOBER 1, 2007 - CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE AREA - EVERY 1ST MONDAY

MEMBER UPDATES

Bill Watts is still having kidney problems. He had the 24 hour urine test starting yesterday. He is to take it to the lab today for testing. He is not on his feet much. Keep Bill and Lottie on your prayer list.

Louise Hammond.... Louise, is doing good. She has cancer in her thyroid gland, The Dr. said he cannot start her treatments because her thyroid is high. It is 32. He wants it down to 20. She is to go to the Dr. today, and if she gets out early, she will come to the meeting today. She also request you to continue to pray for her.

Barbara Greeson continues to do well. She has been busy with a family reunion last weekend. And a revival at her church all this past week.

Tom Burris is doing pretty good. Except for his age. Today is Tom's birthday! HAPPY BIRTHDAY TOM!

Have a good day, Sir

A Tennessee senior citizen drove his brand new Corvette convertible out of the dealership.

Taking off down the road, he floored it to 80 mph, enjoying the wind blowing through what little hair he had left.

"Amazing," he thought as he flew down I-75, pushing the pedal even more.

Looking in his rear view mirror, he saw the Georgia Highway Patrol behind him, blue lights flashing and siren blaring. He floored it to 100 mph, then 110, then 120. Suddenly he thought, "What am I doing? I'm too old for this," and pulled over to await the trooper's arrival.

Pulling in behind him, the trooper walked up to the Corvette, looked at his watch and said, "Sir, my shift ends in 30 minutes. Today is Friday. If you can give me a reason for speeding that I've never heard before, I'll let you go."

The old gentleman paused.

Then he said, "Years ago, my wife ran off with a Georgia State Trooper. I thought you were bringing her back."

Have a good day, Sir," replied the trooper

Two elderly gentlemen from a retirement center in Chattanooga, were sitting on a bench under a tree when one turns to the other and says: "Slim, I'm 83 years old now and I'm just full of aches and pains. I know you're about my age. How do you feel?"

Slim says, "I feel just like a new-born baby."

"Really? Like a new born baby?"

"Yep. No hair, no teeth, and I think I just wet my pants."
