ROADWAY RETIREES

February 5, 2007 - CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE AREA - EVERY 1ST MONDAY

January 29, 2007

Bobby Elrod has been on the road 33 years is honored by the folks on the job. And, it's not just because of his years of service.

Bobby drives an 18-wheeler and has driven four million miles, accident free

Elrod works for Roadway Terminal in Ringgold, Georgia. The company held a luncheon in his honor and presented him with a number of awards.

The company says he's the 19th Roadway driver to achieve this milestone and will join seven other active Roadway drivers who've driven four million miles, also accident free.

TOP 6 MORONS OF 2006

1. WILL THE REAL DUMMY PLEASE STAND UP?

2. WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM OUR FRIENDS: Police in Oakland, CA spent two hours attempting to subdue a gunman who had barricaded himself inside his home. After firing ten tear gas canisters, officers discovered that the man was standing beside them in the police line, shouting, "Please come out and give yourself up."

3. WHAT WAS PLAN B??? An Illinois man, pretending to have a gun, kidnapped a motorist and forced him to drive to two different automated teller machines, wherein the kidnapper proceeded to withdraw money from his own bank accounts.

4. THE GETAWAY! A man walked into a Topeka, Kansas Kwik Stop and asked for all the money in the cash drawer. Apparently, the take was too small, so he tied up the store clerk and worked the counter himself for three hours until police showed up and grabbed him.

5. DID I SAY THAT??? Police in Los Angeles had good luck with a robbery suspect who just couldn't control himself during a lineup. When detectives asked each man in the lineup to repeat the words: "Give me all your money or I'll shoot", the man shouted, "that's not what I said "

6. ARE WE COMMUNICATING??? A man spoke frantically into the phone: "My wife is pregnant and her contractions are only two minutes apart".

"Is this her first child?" the doctor asked.

"No!" the man shouted, "This is her husband!"
