UPDATE ON THE SICK

Floyd Bledsoe is doing pretty good. They have taken him off the chemo treatments and he has been taking radiation treatments. He finished the treatments on Monday 27th. Says he is doing pretty good.

Jack Reneker has his gall bladder surgery May 6, 2005 at East Ridge Hospital. He is doing real good.

David Grisham has lung surgery to remove a cancer mass in his lung. They had to remove part of three ribs while they were in there to be able to remove the cancer. He has been in terrible pain since the surgery. The Dr. said he would probably be in a lot of pain for about 3 months. He is better and is hoping he will be able to come to the lunch today.

Dorma Farmer's Mom is at home and doing better.

D. T. Daniel is recovering at home from his surgeries at Memorial Hospital. He had a stent put in his kidney, also cleared out an artery in his neck. The second day after the artery surgery, he developed a blood clot and they had to go back in to remove it.

Willie Stoner is doing really good. He has made a fishing trip to Florida. He also went back to his cancer Dr. The Dr. said he could not find any sign of cancer right now.

Travis Jordan has to go to the Dr. on the 13th. He is having trouble with his ankle. Also he has an aneurysm on his aorta. He is to see the Dr. about this on the 19nd.
