"LIFE IS NOT A JOURNEY TO THE GRAVE WITH THE INTENTION OF ARRIVING SAFELY IN A PRETTY AND WELL PRESERVED BODY, BUT RATHER TO SKID IN BROADSIDE THOROUGHLY USED UP, TOTALLY WORN OUT, AND LOUDLY PROCLAIMING,

Our son Chad has a nodule on his chest and the Dr. has made arrangements for him to have a mammogram and an ultra sound. Please pray that this won't be cancer. I really didn't know that a man can have breast cancer, but they say it happens more than we know.. He is 27 years old, just married a year ago and is working casual at Roadway . We are very worried about him. Please say a prayer for us. I sure do appreciate all the prayers you have given us in the past. I don't know what we would do without our prayer partners.

We love all of you!

Thanks to the Lord and all your prayers our son Chad is feeling much better. The place on his chest is still there, but does not seem as sore as it was. We are so thankful! He still will have to go back in 5 months and have another test to just be sure it hasn't grown.

It is so nice to have prayer partners like you all.

Hope to see you all soon!
Love, Dennis and Janice Brantley

We would like to thank everyone for their prayers and concern for our grandbaby. Leah went to the doctor last Monday. She is going to the high risk group. The baby is doing good. The problem he is having with his intestines, have not gotten any larger since she was last seen.

So please keep up the prayers. Hope everyone had a great 4th. Our retirees are a Great group of caring people.

God Bless and take care till next time.

FROM BILL AND LOTTIE

Hey Everyone,

Hope all of ya'll are well and doing good. As for us , we have been better, but are doing pretty good. Wish we could be with everyone at the meeting today, but, we will be thinking about everybody.

Bill is doing OK, but, seem to be having trouble with his hip and also his foot. He plans to go to his arthritis doctor this next week and get x-rays done, so maybe they can tell what's going on. Then he plans to get the other foot operated on soon. I have an appointment with my doctor July 13th, but, it's just check-up time and all that stuff. I'm feeling pretty good though. Just pray for us.

Last week, we enjoyed having Jack & Jackie Reneker down to visit with us for a few days. They brought their dog Duke down also to visit with our 2 pups and they also seemed to enjoy themselves. Jack got to go with Bill to a Roadway luncheon in Lake Park, Ga and got to visit with some of his buddies that he worked with down here. They seemed to have a pretty good meeting and enjoyed everyone's company.

Hope ya'll have a good meeting today. Maybe it won't be long before we can get back up that way again. Miss you all.

Love, Bill & Lottie Watts

Cute - power of prayer. Enjoy!

After starting a new diet, I altered my drive to town to avoid passing my favorite bakery. I accidentally drove by the bakery this morning and there in the window were a host of goodies. I felt this was no accident, so I prayed, "Lord, it's up to you....if you want me to have any of those delicious goodies, create a parking place for me directly in front of the bakery.

"And sure enough, He answered my prayer.... on the eighth time around the block, there it was!

The Lord does work in mysterious ways.!

This is cute, I think I have some of the symptoms.

Despite what you may have seen on the streets, the following combinations: DO NOT go together:
Nose ring and bifocals.
Spiked hair and bald spots.
A pierced tongue and dentures.
Miniskirts and support hose.
Ankle bracelets and corn pads.
Speedos and cellulite.
A belly button ring and a gall bladder surgery scar.

Unbuttoned disco shirts and a heart monitor.

Midriff shirts and a midriff bulge.
Bikinis and liver spots.
Short shorts and varicose veins.
In-line skates and a walker.
But, otherwise,

WE'RE LOOKIN' GOOD BABY
